Community NEWS

You have probably heard the news by now, but if not.... Alexis and Keith are retiring from Luna Star and Brie (Bridgette) and Eric King will be the new proprietors. Alexis and Keith have been there for 29 years! Wow! On a personal note (from Elyse), I have actually been going to Luna Star for all 29 years and even met my partner there 25 years ago. I try to get there at least once a month, but many of our members are regulars and go every week. Luna Star is the Club's longest partner and we want to thank Alexis and Keith for the hard work to keep the music alive and for such a great listening room. We want to thank Brie and Eric for stepping in to keep Luna Star vibrant for our community. There will be changes! So keep watching our FB and Friends of Luna Star for upcoming announcements.

Calendar of Events

If you are a performer or know of other events that you'd like to share on on calendar, be sure to email sffamc@gmail.com before the beginning of the month!

SFFAMC Underground Concert Series at Luna Star Cafe

Lee Hunter and Joey Kerr

Lee Hunter is a singer, songwriter, rhythm guitarist, percussionist and pianist with a passion for folklore. From 1992-2014, she worked with guitarist Arvid Smith in the critically acclaimed duo, Tammerlin. Together they placed their own stamp on folk/roots music. What you heard was exceptional guitar work accompanying clever original songs and traditional tunes pulled from the roots of American music.

Since 2015, Lee has been working with outstanding guitarist and award-winning songwriter, Joey Kerr. Joey brings impressive musicianship and an extensive knowledge of American music to the duo's sound. In addition, Lee and Joey offer an educational program for students of all ages and two special concerts of music and spoken word- a holiday program, "Wintersong- A Celebration of the Winter Season" and "Civil War & Seafaring Songs". Lee & Joey are joined from time to time by keyboardist, Walter Mingleorff as Lee Hunter & The Gatherers Trio.

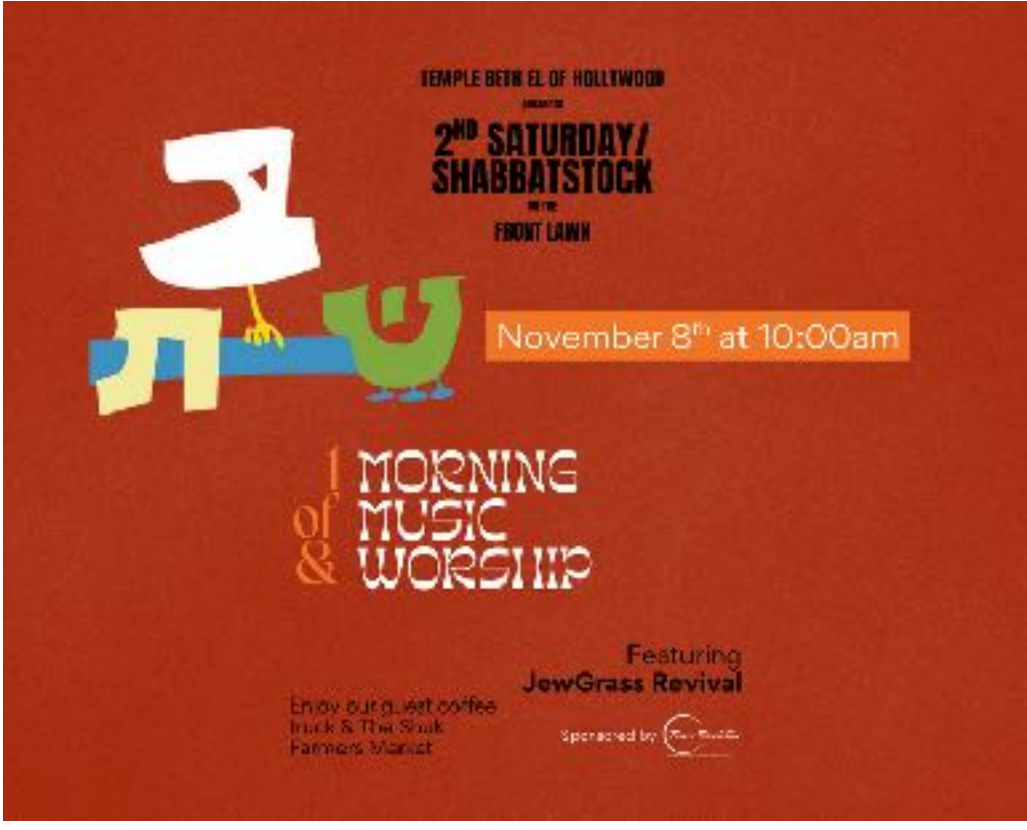

Lee's focus remains on performing and writing songs. Together with Walter Parks, longtime guitarist for Richie Havens and a fine songwriter and solo performer, were asked to open to open a series of shows for Emmylou Harris in 2015. They have since performed at several music festivals and plan to continue to collaborate from time to time. Walter Parks has also played at the cafe before and returns on a yearly basis.

Through many years on the road, running a night club/music venue in Tallahassee, and after a ten-year stint on an isolated island off the coast of Nicaragua, Peeples turned to writing with a vengeance. He wrote poetry and songs that turned a critical eye on American culture and identity, the very definition of contemporary folk music. He is the recipient of the Focus Foundation Award for Creative Excellence, which cited the “humor, compassion and wisdom of his songs,” and his “unflinching social insight and cultural acuity.” Grant tours coast to coast has been a regular performer at The Woody Guthrie Folk Festival, the 30A Songwriters Festival, and The Florida Folk Festival. In June he makes his debut at the prestigious Kerrville Folk Festival. January 2019 marked a second tour in The Netherlands, where FolkForum.nl described him “...a pure storyteller, in the best American folk tradition...” and his show “...one of those gems that you will remember for a long time...” Grant has just released his 12th studio album, A Murder of Songs. www.grantpeeples.com https://www.youtube.com/@grantpeeplesjr
