The LOCATION & TIME HAS CHANGED!!

- Help guide the direction of our organization
- Support events, planning, and community growth
- Work on the S. Fl Folk and Acoustic Music Festival

If you're passionate about our mission and would like to serve — or if you simply have questions — please contact us at sffacmc@gmail.com.

Bands who have inspired me musically: The Church, Better Than Ezra, Tesla, Pink Floyd, Alter Bridge, Local H, Foo Fighters, Bruce Springsteen &amp; East Street Band, Nirvana, Buffalo Tom, Steel Pulse, Unwritten Law, Peter Tosh. Luna Star Presents: Debbie Spring and Friends

Jazz is an art form that embraces a wide variety of musical styles performed on a wide variety of musical instruments that are less common in other genres. There have been a number of great jazz violinists, but there haven't been too many jazz viola players, especially ones like DEBBIE SPRING who plays a five string viola. Spring's playing is heartfelt and technically flawless, and her songs are inflected with Latin, Brazilian, straight ahead jazz, pop, and classical music, reflecting the cultural diversity of South Florida where she lives.

His guitar playing, which is primarily influenced by bluegrass and jazz, is showcased on his debut album of fiddle tunes, entitled “Jake Eddy,” which features such greats as Grammy-award winning Bryan Sutton, Rob Ickes, and Kenny Smith. https://pennylaneemporium.com/event/jake-eddy-in-concert-bluegrass-guitar-workshop-march-28/

His gentle way of sharing his music coupled with brilliantly insightful lyrics has proven him to be one of the under the radar most gifted singer/songwriters around today. I would liken his music to Danny Schmidt, John Willian Davis, Sam Baker, TPR and more.
